Part Two – Applicant’s Attitudes

Introduction

This report provides information on the four Attitude Scales (Integrity, Substance Abuse, Reliability and Work Ethic). Each attitude is represented by a graph. The paragraph below each graph describes the applicant's attitude.

Section I - Attitude Scores

Integrity – Adherence to moral and ethical principles acceptable in the workplace.

Mr. Trouble maintains a tolerant attitude concerning “borrowing” and the appropriation of property.

Substance Abuse – Attitudes toward substance abuse in the workplace.

He states often that self-control is necessary concerning drugs in the workplace, but his attitude is also somewhat tolerant at other times.

Reliability – Attitudes concerning following procedures, dealing with authority figures and working positively with others in the workplace.

In most cases, Tom is trusting of others, but when he perceives reasonable doubts about their intentions or authority, he is likely to express a little caution.

Work Ethic – Belief in the value of work and appropriate supervisory relationships in the workplace.

Tom may feel uncomfortable about “petty” restrictions on his personal autonomy like being to work on time or complying with specific procedures.

Distortion for this assessment is within the acceptable range.

Interview Questions

The following interview questions are presented for your consideration as you interview Mr. Trouble. Note that the “Critical Issue” statements are written to the interviewer and should not be asked of the applicant.

Critical Issue: Does the applicant possess an overly careless attitude about rules or procedures concerning company property?

Applicant's Response to: Taking something from your company with the good intention of paying for it later is not the same as stealing. (Mr. Trouble agrees)

Interview Questions:

- What's the difference between stealing and taking company property that you pay for later?
- Would you say that your opinion about this is somewhat speculative, or have you done something like this yourself, even though you had an excuse?
- Would you say that some rules concerning taking company property (even if you DO pay for it later) are too strict? Why?

Critical Issue: Does the applicant tend to equivocate about stealing in order to hide an unacceptable behavior?

Applicant's Response to: There are some circumstances that justify taking money or merchandise without permission from your employer. (Mr. Trouble agrees)

Interview Questions:

- What circumstances would you say justify the taking of money or merchandise?
- What makes these circumstances different? What makes them appropriate?
- Is your perspective on this issue purely hypothetical, or has there been a time in which you acted upon these circumstances yourself?

Critical Issue: Is working while under the influence of illegal drugs a behavior that the applicant is likely to do?

Applicant's Response to: There is nothing wrong with using illegal drugs on the job if it helps you to relax and do a better job. (Mr. Trouble agrees)

Interview Questions:

- You seem to feel that some people may have their own reasons to use illegal drugs while on the job. Have you ever done so yourself?
- You have stated that some illegal drugs can improve job performance. Can you explain more about this and have you tried this tactic to improve your own performance?
- Your statement about using drugs to relax on the job is interesting. Would this be a purely hypothetical point of view, or have you tried this yourself in the past?

Critical Issue: Is the applicant referring to himself?

Applicant's Response to: Most people try to do the right thing when given a chance. (Mr. Trouble disagrees)

Interview Questions:

- Why do you believe that most people will not do the right thing when given a chance?
- Can you give a specific example that supports this belief?

Critical Issue: Is the applicant overly critical, negative and fault finding?

Applicant's Response to: I believe I should overlook other people's faults and make an effort to get along with everyone. (Mr. Trouble disagrees)

Interview Questions:

- Why do you believe you should not overlook other people's faults and make efforts to get along with everyone?
- Any particular faults?
- Any specific individual or group of people?

Critical Issue: Is the applicant justified for feeling this way?

Applicant's Response to: So little of what I do is really appreciated by others. (Mr. Trouble agrees)

Interview Questions:

- Why do you feel that you're not appreciated by others? Can you give a specific example? Is this one time or is this repetitive?
- What do you mean by "appreciated?"

Critical Issue: Is the applicant's reason for not always telling the truth reasonable and justified?

Applicant's Response to: Everyone should be expected to always tell the truth. (Mr. Trouble disagrees)

Interview Questions:

- When is it okay to not always tell the truth? Give a specific example.
- Under what circumstances, if any, should you always tell the truth?
- Under what circumstances, if any, should you never tell the truth?

Critical Issue: Is the applicant going to follow rules?

Applicant's Response to: It is okay to get around rules, as long as you don't actually break them. (Mr. Trouble agrees)

Interview Questions:

- When is it okay to get around rules?
- Work related example, what was the rule? How did you get around it? What was the outcome?
- When is it not okay to get around the rules?
- What is the difference between getting around vs. breaking rules?

Critical Issue: Is this tendency going to cause work related problems?

Applicant's Response to: It takes a lot to make me angry. (Mr. Trouble disagrees)

Interview Questions:

- What stands out as the most common reason you sometimes get angry with others?
- How much is "a lot?" How short is the fuse?
- Can you share a recent example or experience, and the consequences?
- How is anger expressed, how strong is the reaction?

Critical Issue: Could this cause serious problems with the other employees?

Applicant's Response to: I prefer to stay out of heated arguments. (Mr. Trouble disagrees)

Interview Questions:

- Why do you like heated arguments?
- Any recent examples?
- Who was it with?
- What was the topic? What was the outcome?
